Effective Date: January 2006

Subject: ANNUAL LEAVE

Application: All non-union employees

Policy Statement: The Organization is committed to creating a healthy work environment. Employees are encouraged to schedule sufficient time off to promote good physical and mental health. Time away from work to relax and pursue special interests is important for everyone in the workplace.

Procedures and Guidelines:

Eligibility Requirements:
All full-time non-union employees are eligible for paid annual leave.

Accruing Annual Leave:
Each employee starts earning annual leave from their date of hire. The amount of leave earned is based on length of service, as follows:

Years of Service	Hours earned per Pay Period	Hours earned in 26 Pay Periods	Days earned in one year
First year	4.0385	Up to 105.0010	Up to 15
Beginning of 5th year	5.3847	Up to 140.0022	Up to 20
Beginning of 8th year	6.7308	Up to 175.0008	Up to 25
Beginning of 15th year	7.2693	Up to 189.0018	Up to 27

Employees hired at the director level shall be eligible to earn up to 20 days of annual leave as of the date of hire, subject to the approval of the Director of Human Resources.

The annual leave plan year is July 1st through June 30th. No annual leave will be earned for any pay period in which any other type of leave exceeds 5 days.

Current employees will cease earning annual leave under the prior policy as of December 31, 2005, and will begin earning annual leave under this policy as of the effective date of this policy.

Scheduling Annual Leave:
Employees are permitted to use annual leave as it is earned. Generally, leave time must not exceed the time an employee has earned in his or her bank. For new hires, there is a 90 day waiting period before annual leave can be used.

With supervisory and human resources approval, employees may be permitted to borrow no more than 5 days from the following year.

If, while on annual leave, an employee is seriously disabled for a period of one week or more, or for a short period of disability involving hospitalization, approval shall be granted to convert up to one week of annual leave to an equal amount of sick leave, if the proper medical documentation is provided. Employee's sick leave balances and annual leave balances will be adjusted accordingly. An emergency room visit is considered a hospitalization only if admittance is required.

The library shall recoup the monetary value of any negative balances from a terminating employee.

Notice Requirements:
Employees may not take annual leave unless it is approved in advance by their supervisor, and should not make plans until such approval is received. Employees should try to provide a month's notice when requesting annual leave of a week or more. In general, annual leave should not be substituted for unscheduled absences.

Rate of Pay:
Annual leave pay is computed at the employee's current straight time pay rate. Shift differentials, productivity bonuses, and overtime do not apply.

Partial Day Absences:
Depending on how an employee is classified, partial day absences are recorded differently. Employees are classified as either "exempt" or "non-exempt".

a. Exempt status: employees in this category are paid on a salary basis and are generally not subject to deductions for variations in the quantity or quality of the work they perform. They must receive their full salary for any week in which they perform work, without regard to the number of hours worked. Exempt employees are not eligible to receive over time pay.

> EXAMPLE: John who is a full-time exempt employee works a half day, with the approval of his supervisor. John would be eligible to be paid for the entire day because he is not subject to deductions, and his annual leave balance would not be affected.

b. Non-exempt status: employees in this category are paid on an hourly basis and are subject to deductions for variations in their workweek. They must maintain a record of the total hours they work each day and are eligible for overtime pay in accordance with state and federal mandates.

> EXAMPLE: Melanie who is a permanent full time non-exempt employee has a planned half day of annual leave. She is only using 3.5 hours of annual leave on that day. Melanie indicates on the timesheet the hours in which she worked and then utilizes 3.5 hours of annual leave to complete a full work day.

c. Employees eligible for intermittent leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act are required to take paid vacation that runs concurrently with FMLA leave in units of as little as an hour at a time.

Carry-over of Annual Leave:

Annual leave is intended to be used in the plan year in which it is earned. However, if job demands make it difficult for employees to use all of the annual leave earned, they can carry up to 7 days of annual leave over to the next plan year. Any accrued time that exceeds 7 days will automatically be transferred into the individual's sick leave bank.
